Dear Parents

Joint Literary Society Dinner

The seventh annual Literary Society Dinner will take place on Thursday 22 November at St Helen and St Katharine. The Dinner is open to all Sixth Form students studying A-level English and Theatre Studies, or students in Year 11 and Sixth Form who are regular attenders of Literary Society, along with Abingdon students who also attend the Joint Literary Society. Our guest speakers are the writers, actors and comedians Ellen Robertson and Charly Clive, who are both Old Girls of St Helen and St Katharine. They will perform some of their material, take part in a short interview, take questions and enjoy conversation with students over dinner.

The evening starts at 6.30pm and students should be ready to leave by 9pm. Please complete the electronic response form by Friday 2 November in order to reserve a place for your daughter.

Please confirm on the form that you are happy for students to either make their own way home or be collected from school at 9pm.

The cost for this event is £15 which will be added to your school bill.

It is extremely important that we hold the very latest medical or dietary information on all our students, so if there are any amendments or additions, do please let the School know. If your daughter has an inhaler or other medication, please ensure that she brings it with her.

I and the rest of the English Department are looking forward to some lively literary discussion.

Yours faithfully

Mr Jonathan Muir
