Dear Parents

Years 9 visit to the Sheldonian Theatre, Oxford

On Wednesday 3 October, students studying music in Year 9 will visit the Sheldonian Theatre in Oxford to attend a schools' concert, featuring BBC Young Musician of the Year Sheku Kanneh-Mason who recently played at the wedding of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle. The concert will be introduced by BBC and Classic FM presenter, Alexander Armstrong.

The concert will feature music which is directly linked to the Year 9 scheme of work and the pieces will be introduced in detail before they are performed. Students will also be exposed to music and instruments which they may not ordinarily hear and the concert offers a unique opportunity to hear some of the country's leading musicians performing live.

We plan to leave school at 1pm and return by 4pm and will be travelling by coach. The concert is free of charge and there will be no additional costs incurred. School uniform will be worn for the visit.

It is extremely important that we hold the very latest medical or dietary information on all our students, especially for any external school visits, so if there are any amendments or additions, do please let the School know. If your daughter has an inhaler or other medication, please ensure that she brings it with her.

Yours faithfully

Ms H Rakowski
Director of Music
